

CRISIS COMMUNICATIONS AND REPUTATION MANAGEMENT

Media Management Series

What Is This About?

Out of every crisis comes an opportunity for an organisation to improve its relationship with key stakeholders and strengthen its reputation. A communications crisis gives the organisation permission to listen and hear what is being said before, during and after a crisis.

Therefore, it is pertinent to analyse the impact of how you say what you say, and how it relates to the evidence when executing a crisis communication plan.

What Will I Gain From This?

- Prepare for a crisis
- Change negative narratives in a crisis by restoring confidence and highlighting positives to stakeholders through the media
- Build trust and honesty across communication lines to emerge from a crisis even stronger

Who Is It For?

You! If you're a:

- Senior Management executive
- Corporate communications professional
- Business owner or company spokesperson

Training Methodology

- Case Studies and Presentations
- Group Discussions and Brainstorming Sessions
- Role-Play Interviews
- Crisis Simulations
